PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

As a Boater, you will be paired with a Co-Angler or Observer. Based on the number of participants, Boaters may not be paired with another angler and will be permitted to fish alone. Boaters will only compete against other anglers registered in the Boater Division. All Boater Division prizes are based on the entry fees collected only from that Division.

As a Co-Angler, you will be paired with a Boater. If the number of Co-Anglers registered for an event exceeds the number of Boaters, Co-Angler eligibility will be based on the earliest registered Co-Anglers. Co-Anglers will only compete against other anglers registered in the Co-Angler Division. All Co-Angler Division prizes are based on the entry fees collected only from that Division.

The only things necessary for you to bring with you, as a Co-Angler or Observer, will be your fishing tackle and a Coast Guard approved life vest. If you are new to the sport of bass fishing tournaments, this is your opportunity to fish a professional type tournament at a very reasonable expense. Your support as a Co-Angler is very critical to the success of any tournament. We are sure that a whole new world will open for you when you enter these events.

At the end of the season the top six Boaters and the top six Co-Anglers in points will qualify and be eligible to compete at a 2016 TBF National Semi-Final event.

BE AN OBSERVER!

When participating in a tournament as an Observer there is no fee, only an optional Lunker Pool entry fee ($5 for one-day event; $10 for two-day event). The Tournament Director must receive the Lunker Pool fee by the Application Deadline listed on this form. Observers are not eligible for any points or additional prizes.
